LIVE Orienteering

Disclaimer

IOF, the production team and the local organisers are doing our best in making available all WOC competitions, at a good quality, to all orienteering followers around the globe at a reasonable cost. The setup of globally distributed live streams from the production bus to the follower's phone, tablet or computer is a complex project where there are several possible issues that can appear. We will do our best to provide good quality, fun and exciting WOC competitions at your home!

The setup with the Russian speaking stream is new and it is a higher risk that there will be issues with this service. No compensation will be issued for problems with this service.

Status, Feedback and questions:

If you encounter any problem or have any feedback, please report it to live@orienteering.org. We will read all feedback. If you want to find the status of the streams, please check the top of the Event page in LIVE

Orienteering. Due to the big variation in type of device that our followers use, we strongly recommend checking the supported devices section in the Live Orienteering FAQ page:

<https://liveorienteering.com/#/faq> and try another device if it is not working on one.

Refunding and compensation

If any major problem occurs, we will do our best to solve it as soon as possible. After the Championship we will evaluate the services from each competition and if major problems have occurred on one competition we will communicate (through LIVE Orienteering registered user email) with all followers that had purchased a ticket on a way for compensation. A major problem could be when the stream is not available for a majority of the live competition time due to a reason that effects all users or a clear majority of the users.

LIVE Orienteering Tickets (UPDATED 2018-08-04)

Because of the problems with the established payment solution on the first competition we have decided to run an alternative payment solution. The problem was that many (not all) that had purchased a ticket did not get the access. That led to many support cases close to the start of the competition.

Now you should buy a ticket through this page: <https://orienteering.org/woc-2018-live-tickets/>

On the new purchase page, you can choose whether you want to buy ticket for:

Week ticket: 20 EURO (5 competitions)

4 Competitions: 16 EURO

3 Competitions: 12 EURO

2 Competitions 8 EURO

1 Competition 6 EURO

Russian commentating livestream on LIVE Orienteering

We aim to setup an 'off site' Russian commentating live stream in parallel to the English commentators. This will be shown as a separate 'Class' in LIVE Orienteering.

Disclaimer: The setup with the Russian speaking stream is new and it is a higher risk that there will be issues with this service. No compensation will be issued for problems with this service.
